Efforts to curb the spread of predatory behavior on this app using the reporting feature have largely been unsuccessful. A news article published by The Guardian noted that "reporting features that allow users to report others for inappropriate behavior have had only limited success." Some users feel that there is little incentive to report a video since they would not be sure if any action would be taken in response to their report. There is also no clear way for a user who has been reported in error to prove that they are not being used against them in this manner. This article also noted that "According to the app, when a user reports a troubling video, it is viewed by actual people who are trained to remove any content that promotes criminal behavior. But when asked whether these people were subject to employment laws through an official employer, TikTok did not respond." ,

So, if you want to create your own videos to share them with other people then TikTok is one of the best apps for you to do so as it also allows you to create group conversations with the viewers who are interested in watching your videos. The only drawback is that there are no "good-looking" videos found on this app. Otherwise, it is a good app that allows its users the freedom of doing all they want to do on the app like uploading videos, sharing them etc without having any restrictions at all. That's why we have given it four stars out of five.",

The criticism of TikTok from a lot of users is not surprising because this platform has been accused of violating its users' privacy in the past. A news article published by a German news outlet noted that "TikTok is no longer just a fun app for teenagers, but rather an attack tool aimed at the private lives and personal data of young people. The American app is the latest in a series of digital platforms to become notorious for breaches of privacy." The article continued to state that "The cross-platform app just received 10 million at-risk accounts. But this data is second-hand, because Snapchat does not make clear whether the images that appear on its platform are real or not." One of the biggest concerns with TikTok is that it allows users to upload sensitive personal information such as videos which include images of people who may be minors. In addition, if a user's account gets hacked, there is no way for them to know if their account has been used against them in a manner which causes harm or embarrassment. In addition, the app does not make clear to its users which videos are older than 24 hours or indicate that their account has been hacked. A lot of people have also expressed concerns about the fact that they do not know what data is collected and what it is used for by the app and that their privacy could potentially be at risk if they do not understand how to use this app as well as what data is being collected from them.",

In March 2021, the musical.ly team revealed plans to launch their own short-form video service called "tiktok" based on existing features from musical.ly within Q2 2021. In January 2021, Musical.ly was the focus of a number of news stories about a widespread school shooting-spree threat which had been made using the platform's live video feature; at least 13 separate cases had been reported across the United States prior to being taken down by moderators and deleted by Musical.ly staff. In response to these threats, Musical.ly disabled access from schools and issued new safety guidelines for its users in an effort to tackle this issue; it also issued a statement that said "musical.ly has zero tolerance for content that violates our community guidelines; we remove this type of content as soon as we become aware of it.", TikTok also contributes to issues regarding copyright infringement by allowing users to use copyrighted material without permission. TikTok's advertising model allows users to receive payments from brands to create, upload and share their own videos or posts, similar to Instagram. However, due to the difficulty of tracking the engagement that its user base generates, TikTok has been called out for the low monetization rates it offers its creators.",
